CONDITIONS OF SALE

- 1) The auctioneers reserve the right to fix a reserve price for any lot.
- 2) The auctioneers have absolute discretion without giving any reason to refuse any bid, to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots, to withdraw any lot from the auction and to vary or add to these conditions or any special conditions relating to any particular lot by announcement at the time of the auction prior to the commencement of the bidding for the lot.
- 3) In the case of a dispute as to any bid, the auctioneers may forthwith determine the dispute or put up the lot against the last undisputed bid or withdraw the lot.
- 4) No person may advance less at a bid than a sum to be named from time to time by the auctioneers.
- 5) Lots on which VAT is payable by the buyer are indicated in the catalogue with an asterisk. VAT is payable at the rates prevailing on the day of the auction on the sum bid.
- 6) The seller may bid for any lot either personally or through the auctioneers or through any other person as many times as they respectively may think fit and may withdraw any lot.
- 7) The highest bidder for each lot shall be the buyer of that lot.
- 8) The buyers of each lot shall give in his name and address and proof of identity (if required) to the auctioneers at the sale and shall if required pay to the auctioneers 25% of the purchase price as an earnest and in part payment.
- 9) Each lot shall be at the buyer's risk from the fall of the hammer but must be paid for in full and removed from the premises at which the auction is being held or wherever it may be situated if elsewhere before property in the goods passes to the buyer provided that if payment is made by cheque property in the goods shall not pass to the buyer until such cheque shall have cleared.
- 10) Each buyer shall pay the purchase price to the auctioneers' cashier and at the buyers expense the buyer shall remove his purchase by the specified date. No purchase may be removed during the sale or until such time as all money due from the buyer shall have been paid and in the event that payment is made by cheque the auctioneer shall be entitled to elect to retain possession of the lot until such cheque shall have cleared.
- 11) The buyer is liable for a charge of £5 (pounds) per lot per day whether or not the lot has been paid for starting from the specified date until the lot is removed or unsold.
- 12) Upon failure by the buyer to comply with Conditions 9, 10, 11 above any money paid in respect of the lot shall be forfeited to the owner of the lot, he paying out of it all just expenses, and the lot shall be resold by public auction or private sale and the deficiency (if any) arising upon the resale together with the expenses of it shall be due as a debt from the buyer in default upon the first sale.
- 13) The auctioneers accept no responsibility in connection with the commissioning of their staff to bid for any lots. Reserves and commissions given by telephone are accepted at sender's risk and must be confirmed in writing before the date of sale.
- 14) Every person on the premises at which the auction is being held before, during or after the sale shall be deemed to be there at his own risk and with notice of the condition of the premises and their contents. Such person shall have no claim against the auctioneers in respect of any injury sustained or any accident which may occur from any cause whatsoever.
- 15) The auctioneers sell as agents for the seller (except where they are stated wholly or partly to own any lot as principal) and as such are not responsible for any default by seller or buyer.
- 16) All goods are sold with all faults and imperfections and errors of description. Illustrations in catalogue are for general identification only. Buyers should satisfy themselves prior to the auction as to the condition of each lot. Any statement by the auctioneers as to the lot is a statement of opinion only and every person should rely on his own judgment as to all matters affecting the lot.
- 17) Neither the seller of any lot nor the auctioneers, their servants or agents is responsible for errors of the description or for the authenticity of any lot or for any misstatement as to any matter affecting the lot. Neither the seller of any lot nor the auctioneers, their servants or agents makes or gives, nor has any person in the employment of the auctioneers any authority to make or give, any representation or warranty in relation to any lot and any implied conditions or warranties are excluded.
- 18) These conditions shall be governed by and constructed in accordance with England Law. All transactions to which these conditions apply and all connected matter shall also be governed by English Law.
- 19) Any interest earned from clients monies will be retained by Lambert & Foster.
- 20) No machinery to be broken up on the Sale Field.

HEALTH AND SAFETY ON SITE

Lambert and Foster are committed to keeping our staff, contractors, customers and attendees safe at all times. To help ensure your safety we wish to highlight the following rules that we require you to abide by at our auctions:

- Follow any health and safety instructions and signage including site specific warnings and the venue's health and safety rules – these must be adhered to at all times.
- Ensure your own actions do not cause harm to any other person or property. Alert a member of the Lambert and Foster team if there are any hazards on site which have not been highlighted to you.
- In an emergency our staff will guide you to a safe area – please follow all instructions. NOTE: To allow emergency services access this may not necessarily be to a site entrance or exit point.
- If you are injured or need medical treatment at any time please alert our staff.

Please remember that you may be entering working areas and should be aware there may be machinery and vehicles in operation. Strictly no admittance to areas of private residence unless permission is given. Any dogs brought on site must be kept on the lead and under control at all times. Any dog fouling must be picked up immediately, bagged and disposed of in the correct bins.

HAZARDS TO BE AWARE OF:

- Please be aware of all vehicle traffic moving about the site. Some vehicles have a more limited visibility than expected.
- No climbing is permitted on any of the lots.
- Nobody under the age of 18 may drive or ride on tractors and other self propelled machines. All necessary insurance and licences must be in place before moving vehicles on or off site.
- Nobody under the age of 18 may, without necessary licences and insurance, operate or help to operate any of the following.

Towed or self-propelled harvesters and processing machines.

Trailers or feed equipment with conveying, loading, unloading or spreading mechanisms.

Power-driven machines with cutting, splitting, mowing or crushing mechanisms or power operated soil-engaging parts.

Chemical applicators such as mounted, trailed or knapsack sprayers.

Handling equipment such as lift trucks, skid steer loaders or all-terrain vehicles.

- Any vehicle left unattended must be left in safe condition, including keys out, cab locked, controls in neutral, any loading apparatus on the ground and the parking brake on or wheels chocked. These must not be located where they will block site entrances or exits.
- Any manual handling under-taken must follow recommended good practice guidelines for your own and other's safety. A copy of which can be viewed online on the Health and Safety Executive's website or asking to see a copy which is held with the administration team on site.
- Be aware of any uneven ground and any slipping or tripping hazards.
- Lambert and Foster accept no responsibility for injuries or damage sustained during the loading, unloading, testing, moving of lots or actions undertaken.
