1 BRICKENDEN ROAD

CRANBROOK | KENT | TN17 3BH

1 Brickenden Road is a semi detached bungalow understood to date back to circa early 1970s presenting brick elevations, set with replacement UPVC double glazed windows, barge boards and soffits beneath a shallow pitched, concrete tiled roof. Scope exists for the interior updating of the fixtures and fittings. The accommodation includes an entrance porch leading to a sitting room with tiled fireplace and an aspect of front. From the inner hall access to the kitchen with dated fitted units, stainless steel single bowl sink unit, space and electric point for cooker, built in boiler cupboard with wall mounted combi mains gas fired boiler providing domestic hot water and central heating, aspect to rear. A door leads through to an enclosed rear porch with door to a useful brick store, fitted with power light and window. Two bedrooms comprise one double room with aspect to front and a single bedroom two, with aspect to rear. The bathroom is fitted with a white suite and includes a panel bath with part tiled surround, fitted cabinets and an obscure glazed window.

Outside, the front garden is laid to lawn, with several established shrubs, part bordered with a flower bed and including a greenhouse. A central concrete pathway leads the front door and continues round to a wooden picket gate and pathway to the rear garden, also laid to lawn with established camellias, timber garden shed and a picket gate providing direct rear access.
