ORCHARD WAY | CRANBROOK | KENT | TN17 3LN

Beverley is an individual, detached, family house with 1950s origins and a significant two storey later addition. The interior ground floor layout could offer scope for reconfiguration, subject to obtaining any relevant consents and if so desired. Features include three separate reception rooms comprising a sitting room with a fireplace housing a wood-burning stove and pleasant aspect to rear out across the garden, a dining room with open fireplace and bay window to front. The family room with oak floor, was formerly the kitchen, with aspect to rear incorporating a sliding door to the garden. A useful study also overlooks the rear garden with direct access to outside. The kitchen/breakfast room has recently been updated with Howden gloss fronted units and drawers including a pull out larder style cupboard and bins, Farmhouse Belling gas fired cooker with filter hood over, space an plumbing for dishwasher and an aspect to front.

Arranged over the first floor landing are four double bedrooms, including both a main bedroom with an en suite shower room and guest suite, with an en suite bathroom. Bedrooms three and four are served by a separate family bathroom. Alongside the bathroom is a walk-in laundry cupboard with space and plumbing for a washing machine.

Outside, to the front is a block paved drive providing parking, together with an integral single garage with space for a workshop area. A wooden side gate provides access to the lawned rear garden; a particular feature extending to approximately 36m, landscaped with magnolia, acers, flowering cherry, Worcester apple tree and well stocked, shaped flower beds. Positioned to the top of the garden is a kitchen garden area with raised beds, greenhouse, shed and summerhouse fitted with electricity.
