DESCRIPTION

The Land at Parsonage Farm comprises an attractive, ring fenced block of broadly level permanent pasture with a thin strip of woodland on its eastern boundary, and a pond within the field boundary. The land extends in all to some 7.51 acres (3.03 hectares), and is located approximately 0.3 miles to the west of the crossroads in the favoured High Weald village of Benenden, Kent.

ACCESS:

Applicants should be aware that the land is currently only accessible via the footpath along the Roman Road, reference WC312A. Please refer to the Kent Public Rights of Way Definitive Map, showing the route of the path which passes along the eastern boundary of the land, from north to south through the wooded shaw.

DIRECTIONS

From the Benenden Crossroads, head west along Cranbrook Road and after 0.3 miles, the entrance to the footpath will be located on the left hand side of the road.

AMENITIES

Local amenities include a village community store and The Bull Inn public house, with the nearby towns of Cranbrook and Tenterden providing more extensive amenities. The renowned Benenden School is located in close proximity to the land, together with a number of nearby National Trust and private gardens attracting international visitors.
